Competition Format and Rules

競技形式および規則 / Format et règlement des compétitions

As of THU 1 JUL 2021

OLYMPIC COMPETITION FORMAT

In the wrestling competition at the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games there are two disciplines: Greco-Roman and freestyle. There are 12 men's events and six women's events in the wrestling programme as follows:

MEN'S GRECO-ROMAN	WOMEN'S FREESTYLE	MEN'S FREESTYLE
60kg	50kg	57kg
67kg	53kg	65kg
77kg	57kg	74kg
87kg	62kg	86kg
97kg	68kg	97kg
130kg	76kg	125kg

The Greco-Roman and the freestyle differ as follows:

- In Greco-Roman wrestling it is strictly forbidden to grasp the opponent below the belt line, to trip or to use the legs actively to perform any action.
- In freestyle wrestling, however, it is permissible to grasp the legs of the opponent, to trip and to use the legs actively to perform any action.

Double nelsons are strictly forbidden in women's freestyle.

The competitions take place by direct elimination system with:

Pairing is in the order of the numbers drawn at random

All competitions take place by direct elimination with a repechage for those wrestlers eliminated by the first and second place finalists. The ideal number of wrestlers is defined at the beginning of the competition and matches take place from the bottom of the draw.

All wrestlers losing against either of the two finalists contest a repechage

The repechage matches begin with the four wrestlers who lost in the first round (including in matches to obtain the ideal number) against one of the two finalists (up to the losers in the semifinals) by direct elimination. The winners of the two repechage matches will be awarded the bronze medals.

Each weight category is organised over two competition days and there will be a maximum of six weight categories competing per day. The medical control and weigh-in for each category takes place in the morning of the first competition day. On the second competition day only those athletes who have qualified to the finals and repechage will be weighed in again.

The competition format is as follows:

First day: qualifications

- Elimination rounds (1/8 finals, 1/4 finals, semifinals)

Second day:

- Repechage
- Bronze medal matches
- Final

If the number of wrestlers in a weight category is not ideal (i.e. 8 or 16), qualification matches will take place to reach this ideal number.

Each match consists of two periods of three minutes with a 30 second break between periods. The winner is the wrestler who has scored the most points at the end of the match, by the addition of points scored in both periods. Evident superiority of eight points in Greco-Roman, or 10 points in freestyle, automatically leads to victory. For all competitions, the timing will run from six to zero minutes on the mat scoreboards.

A fall automatically stops the match in any period.

In the exceptional case that after two minutes in the first period, no wrestler has scored in men's freestyle or women's freestyle, the referee must obligatorily designate the passive wrestler.

DIFFERENCES BETWEEN THE UWW WORLD CHAMPIONSHIPS AND THE OLYMPIC GAMES

- The Senior World Championships contain more competitors in each of the 10 weight categories. At the Olympic Games, there are only six weight categories in Greco-Roman and 12 in Freestyle.

CHANGES SINCE THE RIO 2016 OLYMPIC GAMES

- The weight categories have been changed for the women's freestyle and men's Greco-Roman.
- The quota of wrestlers has been reduced.
- The competition for each weight category is now organised over two days.
- There are three weight categories at each competing day.
- The medical control and weigh-in is organised in each morning of the two competition days, for each weight category competing that day.
- The drawing of lots is held the day before the competition day of the concerned weight category, at the latest.
- If one or more wrestlers do not attend or fail the weigh-in, their opponent will win the bout by forfeit. There will be no further pairing on the day of the competition.
- The function of "jury of appeal" will not be present in the Tokyo 2020 Olympic Games. The referee delegate will be in charge of giving the decision in case of a challenge.
- There are two new victory types: "double injury" (2VIN) and "double forfeit" (2VFO)

SPORT RULES AND PROCEDURES

A match may be won:

- By a "fall"
- By injury

- By three cautions given to the opponent during a bout or two leg fouls in the Greco-Roman style
- By technical superiority
- Following a forfeit
- By disqualification of the opponent
- By points

When a wrestler scores eight points more than his opponent in Greco-Roman wrestling, or 10 points more in the freestyle and women's events, they win the match by superiority.

A wrestler receiving three cautions during a match is disqualified.

Tiebreak rules

In case of a tie by points the winner shall be declared by successively considering: The highest value of holds; the lowest number of cautions; and the last technical points scored.

The wrestlers of each weight category will be ranked in the following manner:

- The losers in the two bronze medal matches will be ranked fifth equal
- The classification points determine the rank of wrestlers.

Classification criteria

From the seventh place, wrestlers of each category will be ranked depending on their classification points, retirement or forfeit, injury or disqualification.

In case of a ranking tie, they will be ranked by analysing the following criteria successively, across the all competition:

1. The most victories by "fall"
2. The most matches won by superiority
3. The most technical points scored
4. The fewest technical points given
5. The lowest seed number (if applicable)
6. The lowest draw number

The wrestlers taking part in the repechage phase will also be ranked according to the classification points earned during the competition, including qualification matches and repechage matches.

Penalties/disqualification rules

Each match should have a winner, as mentioned earlier, except in the case of a double disqualification, double injury or double forfeit.

Protests/appeals

No protest may be lodged after the end of a match, only the result obtained on the mat counts.

Under no circumstances may the results of a match be modified.

During a match, a coach acting on behalf of his athlete, and with his agreement, is allowed to ask for one video replay (challenge) on the public video board in case of disagreement with the refereeing body. The match is interrupted during this review. In case of a positive outcome of the review, the score will be corrected and the team will retain the right to call for another challenge.

Officials

In all competitions, the technical officials for each match shall consist of the following refereeing body:

- One referee
- One judge
- One mat chairman

Replacement of an official during a match is strictly prohibited, except in the case of a serious illness that is medically confirmed. In no case may two officials be of the same nationality. Furthermore, it is strictly forbidden for an official to officiate in matches involving compatriot wrestlers.

The classification points determine the rank of wrestlers from seventh place. In case of a tie, ties will be broken using the following criteria:

1. The most victories by "fall"
2. The most match wins by superiority
3. The most technical points scored in the whole competition
4. The fewest technical points given in the whole competition
5. The lowest seed number (if applicable)
6. The lowest draw number
